Pat Averill considers herself primarily self-taught, although she has attended an array of workshops and seminars on oil, watercolor, and colored pencil. She considers the way she figuratively "inhales" the colors, values, and shapes she observes around her to be an integral part of her artistic process. To her, the creation of art is based on a combination of life experiences and the artist's reaction to the subject matter. Pat is a charter member of the Colored Pencil Society of America, and she has won numerous awards in juried international competitions for her work in colored pencil. Averil; Hickman; Debra Kaufman Yaun Debra Kauffman Yaun discovered that she had a knack for drawing people when she was a young girl growing up in Tampa, Florida. After graduating from the Ringling School of Art and Design in Sarasota, Florida, Debra worked as a fashion illustrator. She has drawn and painted many commissioned portraits, several of which have been of children--her favorite subject to draw. Debra's artwork has been published in several art magazines and books, and she has won numerous awards, including an international award. She is a signature member of the Colored Pencil Society of America, having served as president of the Atlanta chapter, and she is a juried member of the Portrait Society of Atlanta. She also enjoys teaching classes and workshops in portraits and colored pencil.www.debrayaun.com

This is an excellent book to refer to from time to time. Have gotten lots of information from it. I recommend it for anyone who enjoys the pencils.

Love this book

Easy to follow instructions for shading. Not for beginners.

very helpful to a colored pencil artist

It's a good resource one I will use often,

Very little actual instruction. Mostly a set of progressively developed pictures. never more than four steps. I think you can do better but that's just a personal opinion.

I have used this book to learn the art of using colored pencils to the best advantage as I color pre-made coloring pages and also learning to use them in my own art work. It has been years since I created with artists projects and I love colored pencils.

This is one of my favorite books. I am in art class and still learning, This book helps.
