Keith Neely has been an illustrator most of his life. He studied art at Brevard, Chicago Art Institute, and Art Center College of Design. Accepting Christ as a young Air Force guard in California in 1968, he decided to dedicate his life to the Lord. Keith's illustration career has included working for many organizations such as Disney, Campus Crusade for Christ, Campus Life, Children's Digest, Augsburg, Child Evangelism Fellowship, Gospel Light, Logos, McGraw Hill, Moody, Standard, Southern Baptist Convention, Methodist Publishing, Thomas Nelson, Warner, Zondervan, and many more. He and his wife, Roberta, have five children and nine grandchildren.

I purchased this for a little boy in an inner city school who had picked it out at a free book fair I organized specifically for this school. Out of 1500 books that were donated, this sweet little boy picked this one. The reason I ordered this one to give to him is because he put it down and someone else took it. I pray the person who picked up the book was blessed by it, however, I really wanted my new young friend to have it as he had his heart set on it. Thank you for having this in stock so I could write a personal note in it, and giving it to him, in person!!

Do you have a grandson named John or Matthew or James? Purchase one of these illustrated Scripture books ...they will be delighted to read it. This series is easy to read and has many helpful extras to explain the text with maps etc. along with the Scripture itself. I recommend starting with John.

good value for kids

Kids love it! Excellent for bringing the Gospel of John to life! Other community members- even adults- asked for it so they could know the Bible better!

If you are interested in seeing and reading the complete book you can go to [...] I've worked with the creator on this project, Keith Neely, and I think it's pretty unique as children's Bibles go. With this Illustrated Bible the verses are used word for word from the ICB (International Children's Bible) translation. The translation was made with children in mind so it's easy to read. There are verse numbers, subheadings, chapter divisions, everything is there that you expect to find in an adult Bible. I really think this is worth a look and should encourage your children (and adults!) to read and understand the Bible.

I highly recommend this Bible! This is an amazing set of books! There is the Old Testament, the New Testament, and the Psalms and Proverbs. There are also smaller books with just one book of the Bible: Matthew, Mark, Luke, John and Acts. This Bible is the actual Bible Text, word for word! It is NOT a children's story book. It is the ACTUAL BIBLE! It's written in the New International Children's Version (NICV). I believe it's a 2nd grade reading level. (For perspective: Regular NIV is 7th grade reading level.) My 2nd grader is actually reading the Bible to her 4 year old sister! My niece (10 years old) was given the Book of John. She read the whole book in one day! I've never even read the whole Book of John in one day! There are cartoons and pictures throughout. When someone is talking, they put up the talking balloons like in the comic strips. You should buy any one of these books. These books make the Bible simple and fun for everyone. Everything is broken down for better understanding. Like the part in Galatians that talks about the Body of Christ. They show a foot talking to the hand, etc. As an adult I like to read it too!

Listen. My kid has a bit of a learning difference. He prefers pictures when reading and who doesn't. This is a great comic book style book that is true to the word of God book. It makes getting to know the bible stories fun, and sticks in the brain due to its comic book format. The kids love it and if that means they learn more about the word of God then I LOVE IT TOO! I would personally recommend it for ages 10 and up, right up to adult. A Great gift too!!

Good book to learn more deeply about apostle John! Â Â Â•
