A former managing editor of "Junior Scholastic" magazine in New York, Price has written articles for publications such as "National Geographic Kids" and "The New York Times Upfront." He lives with his family in Alabama.

Ivan really was terrible. This book covers the main points of his life. The Wicked History series of books is for junior high school students. (Or smart elementary school or dumb high school students). If you are interested in some historical person, but don't have the time to read a long scholarly book, read a Wicked History book. Most people can read a Wicked History book in a day.

All of the Wicked History books are well written and always provide you a perspective you likely haven't read in other books. Great for kids as they are enjoyable to read.

This was perfect for a writing assignment for a 3rd grade class. The information was easy to read and understand and allowed our child enough information to complete his paper on a famous person. Good book!

We used this book for an English class. It worked well for us.

One of the best titles in an awesome series.

My 9 year old loves these history books.

Way to summary level, not what I expected.

4th grade level
