Customer Reviews

Robert Ferguson first travelled to Nepal in 1984, aged 18,with a huge rucksack and tiny budget. He got a board-and-lodging job with a localtrekking agency that finished with a trek around the Annapurna Circuit. He washooked. He returned to Kathmandu in his early 20s as a mountain guide, leadinggroups around the Annapurnas, the Everest region and Kanchenjunga. Back in the UK he became operations manager for a leading UKtrekking specialist to Nepal as well as starting his own tour operation in theHimalaya. The highlights of his many visits to Nepal over the years are hishoneymoon, which involved driving from Lhasa to Kathmandu and a recent visitwith his wife and two teenage daughters, trekking in the Annapurnas, rafting and tiger watching in the Terai.
