I love the Adam Gamble books. I want them all!! The Michigan one was for a friend whose family lives there. She loved it and had never seen these books until I gave it to her. I love how they highlight all the top tourist spots in that state. So if you're familiar with the state its exciting to read about the places you've been. My daughter loves that!! They are sturdy thick pages that withstand being read over and over. And they're the perfect length. Not too short, not too long. My daughter and I have been reading ours from age 1 1/2 until now age 3 3/4. She still enjoys them. Her favorite right now is Good Night New Baby (because she has a new baby brother). These really pertain to life events and resonate with readers young and old. They are super cool gifts, happily given and received. And the prices are either always slightly less expensive or right on target.

I am SO happy to have found this series of picture books! What a great way to stay connected! I purchased this book as a baby shower gift for a relative whose husband used to live in Michigan but now lives in Virginia. She absolutely loved it! While he's no longer a Michigan resident, the baby (now 8 months old) has several relatives who are. They are fortunate to travel back to Michigan every now and then - the baby's becoming quite a frequent flyer! This book is such a charming way to stay connected to her daddy's family and friends and become familiar with local landmarks that she will be able to see and experience once she's older and visits the state more. This book series is now on my go-to list for all baby showers.

Super cute little book. I bought this for my brand new nephew who lives in Colorado. I had a whole Michigan theme gift package going to him. I want him to know about how awesome Michigan is - and this book helps do that! It is a well made cardboard book, so it will last forever and take a beating from a toddler. Great product.

I wish I could say good night to Michigan forever. But I can't, so this gets my nephew by at least. This winter hellscape is a better place with this book.

Very nice book describing Michigan to young children.

Great Michigan book

I bought this book for my daughter as I had seen it in a store and hadn't bought it at that time so I was so happy to have found it on . It has all of the great places in Michigan in it and it will be fun as she gets older to take her to all the places and have her recognize the places in the book.

Can't believe they did not include Detroit or Lansing! But a great book! Mentions Mackinac Bridge, Island and Ferry, UofM and MSU, Henry Ford Museum, Sable Point Light House and Lake Michigan.
