Customer Reviews

This large and beautifully formatted book featuring the lyrics from the songwriting team of Elton John and Bernie Taupin during the many years of their collaboration, which began in 1967, is strictly for Elton John devotees. The lyrics are printed on the page in the form of poetry, which is in effect what they are, and are accompanied by reproductions of avant-garde artwork by known and unknown artists, each work chosen to complement the mood of the lyric to which it is partner. There are also some evocative photographs of Elton John and Bernie Taupin. Not for small music collections, but large, active ones will want to consider this. Brad Hooper perfect guide book to the works of one of the greatest song writing duos ever.

very nice - in great shape

Love this book and it shows the genius of the two and the race with which they could create such amazing works. They ate only surpassed by Lennon and McCartney for excellence.

great item, quick shipping, thanks

Great Book for the Elton John collector!

I like the lyrics set to art work

Seeing BT's naked lyrics without EJ's music reminds one that EJ's right when he says, "Without Bernie Taupin, there wouldn't have been an Elton John" (like the one we know)!

Beautifully written and illustrated with fabulous photos. A treasure!
