Joan R. Lipis became a Jewish believer in Y'shua (the Hebrew way to say "Jesus") in 1986. Today she directs Novea Ministries in Portland, Oregon. Novea is Hebrew for "bubbling forth," which literally describes Miss Lipis's personality and her commitment to telling others about her Messiah. Miss Lipis is now a popular conference, seminar and women's group speaker in the Pacific Northwest region. She has written this Haggadah as an expression of her Jewishness and her Christian commitment.

if you are having a messianic celebration of the passover then i would recommend this haggadah. there's a bunch of helpful tidbits that help you make that connection between what happened then to now.

This book was exactly what I was looking for! Excellent! I needed to prepare a christian passover ceremony and this book was essential since it has it step by step, with many explanations.

This little "How To" book offers an easy way for Christians to experience a Passover meal (from a Christian perspective). It is not overly complicated and it is not the best Messianic Haggadah I have seen, but it is one of the easiest to follow and will serve its purpose. It is easy to use for the average Gentile family or religious group. It will help to inform readers on the Jewish roots of the Christian faith. It is both informative and useful.
