As it turns out, there is." - WickedHorror.com"A scholarly dive into the making and meaning of the film." -Â New York Daily News"The chapters are all cleverly titled (my favorite is The Home Alone of Halloween), and with his colloquial tone, fresh perspective and well thought-out ideas, Wallace makes this an interesting and easy read." -Â The Movie Guys"A great gift for any Hocus Pocus fan. Or why not pair it with a copy of the movie for a great Halloween hostess gift?" - WDWHints.com"A fantastic book. I read it cover to cover. ...I'm a pretty diehard fan of the movie, and I learned stuff. Theories... lots of things you'd never think about. I love this book. I cannot rave about it enough. Phenomenal." - Dizney Coast to Coast

"This book is really about falling in love with Hocus PocusÂ all over again. I think you'll learn things you never knew. It's one spell of a movie, and I hope this book helps you 'run amok' with it each and every Halloween." - Aaron Wallace

If you are a fan of Hocus Pocus,and what rational thinking person isn't,? you need to get this book. I enjoyed this one a lot. A fun walk back to Salem and the magic of the movie. This is my all time favorite movie ever from Disney and the book is a fun read to go along with the movie.

Fantastic read for anyone who loves Hocus Pocus. An absolute must have! So many fun stories and explanations and parallels. It will make watching the movie that much more enjoyable (as if it's not already wickedly funÃ Â Â^Â%).

Fantastic book. If you're a fan of Hocus Pocus, I highly recommend getting it.

Love it! All fans should read! That is all.

If you're a fan of Disney Hocus Pocus, then purchasing this booOOOk is a no-brainer. Wallace beautifully details the making of the movie, including stories about its creation, behind the scenes anecdotes, and he also discusses themes and theories that I never even considered before, despite how many times I've seen the film. Aaron Wallace is clearly a fan of the movie and that makes this book so much fun to read.Do yourself a favor: get this book and read it

Great work Mr. Aaron Wallace. Couldn't put the book down. A great asset to the book collection.

Arrived on time. Described perfectly. Also, a great read for fans of the movie.

I've been a passionate fan of "Hocus Pocus" for decades, just as Wallace writes about himself in this incredibly rewarding, well-written gem of a book. I'll admit: I was skeptical when I purchased it, not wanting to get my hopes up, and expected a few trivia facts and photos of the movie. I had no reason to worry - at close to 200 pages, Wallace delivers so much more: he gives "Hocus Pocus" the respect it deserves among iconic Halloween films while adding his own wit, observations and funny one-liners. Any fan of the movie can - and should! - appreciate how he balances descriptions of the movie's 90's camp nostalgia with well-argued and supported theories, like why he believes there was so much talk about virgins for a Disney film. This quality book is fun, spirited, and will be a welcome addition to any "Hocus Pocus" fan's collection - enjoy!!
