Customer Reviews

My 12 yr. old daughter loves this.

This is a cute kit for any budding selfie photographer. You get a selfie stick, book and some props that just need to be taped onto a stick (sticks not included.) The selfie stick is a basic selfie stick that grips your phone and then you extend the pole. It does have a button on the stick to take the picture so you will need to set the timer on your phone to take the picture. The book is very cute and full of selfie ideas, etiquette, facts and more. For the price it is a great starter kit! Perfect gift! I did read a review where the user's phone slipped out so obviously make sure your phone grips in there tightly before waving the stick around, I didn't have a problem with our Samsung phones - cases though do make a difference in how well the phone can be gripped. I received this product to review in exchange for sharing my honest opinion.

I won this in a raffle. The booklet is cute and the punch out shapes are shiny and fun, but the selfies stick catapulted my Droid Turbo across the counter twice. I'm not risking my phone on this stick again. My phone and case have rounded edges that are not gripped by the stick. The stick's top plastic piece has 4 tiny dots to hold the phone, but the front dot is almost below the regular surface due to too little plastic being pumped into the mold. Maybe an iPhone would work, but you better test it over a soft bed just in case.

This thing is a big waste of money. The included selfie stick has no way of taking the photo. The kit comes with a dozen scratchy punch-outs that, despite the box showing folks holding them with sticks, said sticks aren't included. Finally, there's a small book that reeks of adults writing something meant to be 'hip' to kids.
