This is a great daily devotional that is taken from the Not a Fan book. It will be a devotional I will read again and again as I become a completely committed follower of Christ. All of Kyle Idleman's books/studies/devotionals have helped me deepen my relationship with Christ.

Awesome devotional. I haven't read the actual book the devotional is based on, but plan to do so. It is very inspiring, help you think about life and how to improve your walk with God. I share this devotional at work, and everyone seems to enjoy it as well. I am hoping the authors does one similar for his book "The End of Me"

This book is a MUST READ for anyone who thinks they are a "Follower" of Jesus Christ. Kyle know how to get the reader to understand the truth of their words, thoughts and actions. Get this book.

Excellent! If you are looking for a practical devo that will influence your spiritual life to make life changes, this is it. Asks the 'hard' questions to help you to get past your inner critic and allow the Holy Spirit to reveal truth.

Terrific daily devotional. The readings are short and relevant to trying to follow God and not just be a fan. I highly recommend this book to everyone to read daily and keep their mind on track.

I'm about 2/3 of the way done with this daily devotional and I have enjoyed every day's reading. It's convicting and will compel you to rethink your devotion to Christ.

Thought provoking, encouraging.

This devotional is very good. It has short, thought provoking passages and includes a section each day for personal growth. I have enjoyed it tremendously.
