Customer Reviews

Bolstered with well-integrated quotes and relevant statistics, books in the Issues in Focus Today series offer an excellent starting point for students seeking broad, thoroughly researched introductions to basic issues. The volumes follow an almost journalistic approach: illuminating case studies, enhanced with multiple viewpoints, personalize the facts and place them in broader context. Beyond Bruises begins with a chapter entitled "Power and Control," which outlines the forms of abuse and the basic dynamics present in abusive situations. Later chapters examine the impact of abuse, common avenues of help, and what it means to be a bystander. Riveting stories of teens weathering physical and sexual abuse will broaden readers' understanding of the issues. Chapter notes, a glossary, and suggestions for further research close these exemplary resources. Grades 7-12. --Gillian Engberg
