Customer Reviews

"I would absolutely adopt the new brief edition of Introduction to Global Politics for my course. It is a strong and comprehensive text that covers the major features of IR/global politics while also bringing in the more specific nuances that keep politics interesting."--Jennifer Bloxom, Colorado

State University" This is one of the most understandable and accessible political science texts that I have read."--Winn W. Wasson, University of Wisconsin "What I like, besides the helpful online resources and the CNN videos, is the tone of the writing. It is quite close to conversational, which I think is a great help for students."--Veronica Ward, Utah State University "The writing is accessible and understandable to contemporary IR students, whether majors or not. This is especially important for the large number of online courses that are offered currently."--Paul A. Mego, University of Memphis

Still reading. Excellent book.

I really like this book. It's got big print, and it's very readable- you can actually just pick it up and read it, unlike most textbooks. It's also very current. It does, however, have a pretty obvious bias- not that I disagree with its bias, but still.

Fairly easy to digest and really helped with my class lectures.

Very good read, very informative and easy to follow and keep up with.

Great book. Arrived on time no hassle

Very good politics text books. I learn a lot about international politics.

A great service and accurate product description.

Perfect option to be able to rent!
