Synopsis

Richard Clark writes with great authority and a deep affection for his subject, which comes from his long association with Greece. Marjory McGinn, bestselling author of Things Can Only Get Feta, Homer's Where the Heart Is, A Scorpion in the Lemon Tree Clark is particularly good on the colours, flavours and scents of Greece. He has got under the skin of the place in a way few outsiders have been able to. Mark Hudson, winner of Somerset Maugham Award, Thomas Cook Travel Book Award, Samuel Johnson Prize I love the way Clark writes, it is personal, it is human and deceptively simple. Sara Alexi, bestselling author of The Greek Village Series In the latest in his acclaimed Notebook series about the Greek Islands, Richard Clark continues his travels around Crete. In his now familiar style of travelogue and memoir he accompanies the reader on a journey to some of the places he has enjoyed visiting on this magical island.

I absolutely loved this book. I didn't want to put it down. I really felt like I was in Crete with the author. His style of writing makes you feel like you are experiencing all the sights, sounds, smells, and tastes with him. I love his approach to history as well, making it interesting, manageable, and moving. I would recommend this book to anyone who has visited Crete or has yet to visit. I can see myself reading this multiple times.
