Customer Reviews

This is an excellent book, full of musical intelligence of a high level, and much extraordinary information and insight. Highly recommended to anyone truly interested in Baroque instrumental music.

This book helped me quite a lot in researching the Pifarri (a rather obscure subject). It is rather dryly written, as are most books like it, but it contains excellent information. I wouldn't go so far as to consider it bedside reading, but for a student of the field, it is worth considering.
