Discovering New Brunswick?

Synopsis

New Brunswick offers a unique partnership of French and English traditions. In this book, travel writers Marianne and H.A. Eiselt celebrate the natural landscape, the fine architectural heritage of cities, towns and villages and the festivals and events that bring the communities together each year. This full color souvenir book covers all four corners of the province - its geography, its people and its history. Highlights include: Hopewell Rocks, Saint John Market, St Andrews-by-the-Sea, St. Stephen's Chocolate Festival, Miramichi Irish Festival, Acadian Village, Sussex Balloon festival. Full color photographs accompany the descriptive text which follows the main tourist routes as shown on the provincial maps.
