Tom Bianchi was born near Chicago, studied law and worked as an attorney before turning to sculpture and finally photography. Today he is one of the most published gay artists the world over. Tom lives with his life partner in Palm Springs. "Deep Sex", after the two "On the Couch" books, is Bianchi's third work to be published by Bruno Gmunder.

The pictures are glossy, a reflection of a good photographer. The men were mostly older than i expected. Lots of graphic shots but not really appealing.

the photograghs are nice

Beautifully photographed, well put together. Of course the men are awesome to look at.

I recommend this book for people that like to paint body's, the material in inside is spectacular and the photos are incredible and excellent selection. I recommend this book, good price and excellent delivery too.

Just a very amateurish selfie collection of an old dude having sex with other old dudes

A wonderful collection of beautiful men and the photographer who takes them. Definitely add this to your collection.

The book offers a passionate and honest photographic look at sexual expression in raw form. The photography is honest and well done. Tom Bianchi offers his personal thoughts as he opens the doors of his life for us to observe. The photography is sexy without needless inhibitions. The images are bold while the text is philosophical. The book stands out which is typical of Bianchi's previous work.

TOM BIANCHI IS TOTALLY FEARLESS ON HOW HE APPROACHES MAN ON MAN SEX AND HIS PHOTOGRAPHY TELLS A GREAT STORY WITH LITTLE NARRATION NEEDED!
