A History Of Ancient Sicily (Illustrated)

Synopsis

The history of the island of Sicily has been that of a struggle between European and Asiatic races for the possession of the most fertile island in the Mediterranean basin. In earlier days Greeks and Carthaginians, in later days Normans and Saracens, were the combatants; and the peace of the island has been secure only when it has been recognised as the dependency of some mighty Continental power, whether in Africa or in Europe...

Customer Reviews

Very detailed. A good history. Not told as a story and therefor kind of dry. Would have benefited by maps. Had some of the atrocities mentioned been more fully described it might have added color.

This was a very complete history of Siicily, but I felt it a bit too detailed for the casual traveller who just wants the basics. The history is long and complex with a multitude of groups controlling the island and contributing to the culture. They include Spain, Normans, Greece, Muslims and mny others. One would gain a pretty complete and comprehensive knowledge of Sicily.

Very difficult to get into Not an easy nor an interesting one unless you are into factual information about nothing !

Very important place that was constantly contested. Sicily history is fascinating but disturbing

Great history lesson!

Very hard to follow.

If you are of Sicilian heritage you will just love this.....

This is the ebook version of a history book published in 1890. So descriptions of today's Sicily, especially its geography and names of places are outdated and not easy to follow. Some facts are obsolete, e.g. the claim that Sicily was once part of a land connection between the Italian peninsula and Africa. It's probably not worth your time if you want to get a current opinion or a quick overview. It still is an interesting read and might add some perspective to modern history texts. But I would have expected a hint to the original source and that it is a text written more than a century ago instead of "published 2014". Neither the description on .com nor the beginning of the book point this out. Very poor.
