Louise Bourgeois: The Spider And The Tapestries

Synopsis

Louise Bourgeois' tapestry and needlepoint work deals with reparation in both a literal and metaphorical sense. In many of the works, fragmented tapestries are pieced together and repaired to create new sculptural forms. The recurring practices of weaving, stitching and mending express Bourgeois' identification with her childhood and the family business of tapestry restoration. Coupled with the medium of tapestry, Bourgeois' recurring motif of the spider symbolizes her mother, a weaver, and fully explores the complex relationship between mother and child. This publication includes archival photographs and facsimile documents from the Bourgeois family archive, as well as excerpts from the artist's psychoanalytical writings.

Customer Reviews

Fabulous, gorgeous book! I adore Louise B and this book is really small and special. The binding, print are beautiful. It shows gorgeous tapestries (heads she made with different fabrics and stitches show so much of the pain she lived with all her life). Wonderful, wonderful!
