Customer Reviews

Honestly, the arrangements are too simple (and somewhat boring). The biggest problem (to me), though, is the accompaniments. A couple were pretty nice, but some of them were VERY cheap sounding (almost 8-bit synth quality), and I'd be embarrassed to play them in church. Maybe OK for a small child to play, but probably not anybody teen or up. (I've got 2 music degrees, but have found that even playing songs that are WAY too easy - which these are, but that's OK - can be very enjoyable and worshipful, if they're arranged and accompanied well, and performed well. For too many of these, the first two ["arranged and accompanied"] were lacking.)

fun for a beginner. very very very simple music. not quite a challenge for anyone with experience. if you are talented, you can write your own (better) music to accommodate the accompaniments.

Love it.

Many good hymns with good accompaniment. Not very many songs but still a good value. Including the words with the music would be a nice addition.

Very pleased with the songs. Well written. Comes with a C.D. that has 2 versions of each song. One with the trumpet and one without.

Some great songs in this book

Some great old time hymns included, good for the soul.

Beautiful trumpet hymns. The CD that came with it was awesome.
