Situational Functional Japanese Volume 2: Drills [Tsukuba Language Group] (English And Japanese Edition)

Synopsis

A communicatively oriented textbook that is most appropriate for older students. Discourse is authentic, but the language is adult, formal and polite. Dialogues relate to situations that an exchange student might encounter, such as introductions, the post office, asking directions, the school office, making phone calls, asking permission. Uses romaji in the beginning but progresses rapidly to kana and kanji. Includes vocabulary lists, oral drills, grammar explanations and exercises. Very comprehensive. Useful as a reference and to supplement other texts.

A very grammar intensive series and perfect for students who do better with grammar than with vocabulary. Not much focus on kanji or vocabulary and that is one drawback, but there are other supplemental materials to make up for what this series of books lacks. The drills books are very useful.

The book arrived very tattered and already written in, on a lot of pages. The book is also organized terribly and I've never seen such a poor guide to learning Japanese. Save yourself the time and just buy the Genki books.

Are you interested in learning japanese?Here what you've been looking for!!!Thi s book is simply wonderful: it does explain the essential grammar and, this is really important,the use of japanese.I bought it from jumpingbee, and I received it so soon...she's been very kind too.
