The End Of Reincarnation: Breaking The Cycle Of Birth And Death

Synopsis

"The world you see is an illusion of a world," A Course in Miracles teaches. "When you really wake up, what appeared to be real before is now recognised as the idle dream it is." Gary Renard, who is the author of one of the most popular books ever written about the Course, guides listeners through its scriptural verses and delivers them to a place where the need to reincarnate no longer exists. "I understand now that reincarnation is only something that appears to happen," Renard explains. It is just a continuation of the dream of birth and death." Distilled for people who have been curious about A Course in Miracles - as well as for continuing students who would like to deepen their studies - The End of Reincarnation offers listeners access to the essence of these teachings. Gary Renard's invaluable contribution is his ability to illuminate the peace available when we awaken from the dream and to catalyse our experience of oneness with all of creation.

Please see my FOLLOW-UP EDIT, after the following original review: I am about 3/4 the way through this audio set, and maybe that's why I still have some questions. First of all, I do (logically) understand the nature of duality, with duality being 'hell', and pure non-duality being 'heaven'. And apparently, the key to pure non-duality is getting rid of unconscious guilt, through forgiveness of ourselves (& others). I love the forgiveness part, but I won't get in to that right now. I'll preface my question with some background: #1. According to the information in the book, our duality is a result of a "mad idea", which was over almost as soon as it happened (A bleep in time). Before the "mad idea", we were all one, and there was no duality.#2. God did not create this illusion we call life, he did not create the earth, or anything associated with our physical, separate lives that are our pseudo reality. We created this illusion as a result of the "mad idea". The mad idea was that we thought we could do pretty good venturing out on our own.Ok, here's where it doesn't make sense to me: If there was no duality before the mad idea, who had the mad idea? Did God have the mad idea, and if so, you could say he had a part in creating duality. If God did not have the mad idea, then we must have had it, and if so, there must have been duality before the mad idea.As I said, I'm only 3/4 through these cd's, so I hope Gary explains a little more about this mad idea theory. Everything else I've heard so far makes perfect sense, but the conflict I'm having with this one question makes me question the validity of the rest of the info.FOLLOW-UP EDIT: OK, I have finished this two cd set, Gary did discuss my question about the "mad idea" a little more. It seems that this is the most frequently asked question. His answer on the cd's still did not totally satisfy me, but apparently there is not an answer that we can totally understand. I have done a little more research on the internet in regards to this question, and everyone says the same thing, they give a small explanation, and follow up by saying that we will not hear an answer that satisfies us because there are no words to explain in a way we will understand. But....There is light at the end of the tunnel!!! I am about a quarter of the way through Gary's previous book, "The Disappearance of the Universe", and my question was discussed on pages 122-125! I was pleasantly surprised at just how well the issue was explained by Gary's ascended friends, Arten & Pursah. So if any of you are having the same trouble with the mad idea explanation of our creation 'illusion', just get the book I mentioned and pay special attention to pages 122-125! It's the best explanation I've heard so far! And by the way, for the cd's I'd change my rating from 4 stars to five if I could!

I like books and tapes by Gary Renard and The End of Reincarnation is a wonderful two-tape set. This message follows that of The Disappearance of the Universe and Your Immortal Reality. It is well worth listening to. Be receptive and allow the Holy Spirit to teach you. Blessings!

This audio cd is a must have for all serious ACIM (A Course in Miracles) students. Gary has two wonderful books out now,Â The Disappearance of the Universe: Straight Talk About Illusions, Past Lives, Religion, Sex, Politics, and the Miracles of ForgivenessÂ andÂ Your Immortal Reality: How to Break the Cycle of Birth and Death with another due out November 11th Love Has Forgotten No One: The Answer to Life. His approach to the subject - which is waking up from this dream illusion we call life, ending the cycle of birth/death that we call reincarnation, and returning to God, which is where we've really been all along and just haven't realized it - is so clear and succinct, you can almost see yourself in it. I paraphrase here: As he puts it, he can't lose, because he just lets the Holy Spirit guide him. Again, a definite must have for the serious seeker!

I love this book, All of Gary's books have helped me so much not only to understand acim better, but to lighten up in life and not be so hard on myself.

After reading Disappearance of the Universe, I was pretty hesitant to read this book, but felt there was a whole lot more of a shift away from the fixation of the "bible" stuff and getting caught up in the God/Jesus thing. Not being a student of the Course of Miracles, I felt my other teachers have been, therefore a lot more of this book "gelled" with my current beliefs, so now looking forward to reading his other material. I'm giving him 4 stars, because I found this to be very similar to his ground breaking book, Disappearance of the Universe. Nevertheless, he's an interesting reader, and I enjoyed listening to this.

Sounds like an unprofessional know it all loses your attention into the first twenty minutes.

Awesome !Listened to these cds again and again. Very helpful to understand and practice A COURSE IN MIRACLES more deeply. Thank you Gary.
