Customer Reviews

This book was a gift for my son, who is completing his first year of trombone. While most of it is still too tough for him (it is recommended for 2nd-3rd year players), he was still thrilled to receive it, as it contained the written parts to things he has been just trying to figure out on his own. He also didn't realize who John Williams was before he realized that he recognizes a lot of his music! I am confident that he will continue to use this book as a way to make practice sessions for fun and that will help him continue to improve.

Fun for 2nd / 3rd year trombone player. Too hard for beginner. Lots of higher notes.
