

The book was found

Issues And Ethics In The Helping Professions (Book Only)

Synopsis

Up-to-date and comprehensive, this practical best-selling text helps readers learn how to deal with and apply ethical standards. It provides readers with the basis for discovering their own guidelines within the broad limits of professional codes of ethics and divergent theoretical positions. The authors raise what they consider to be central issues, present a range of diverse views on these issues, discuss their position, and present many opportunities for users to refine their own thinking and actively develop their own position. Readers explore such questions as: What role do the therapist's personal values play in the counseling relationship? What ethical responsibilities and rights do clients and therapists have? What considerations are involved in adapting counseling practice to diverse client populations?

Book Information

Hardcover: 576 pages

Publisher: Brooks Cole; 9 edition (January 1, 2014)

Language: English

ISBN-10: 1285464672

ISBN-13: 978-1285464671

Product Dimensions: 10 x 8.3 x 1 inches

Shipping Weight: 3.1 pounds

Average Customer Review: 4.2 out of 5 stars 225 customer reviews

Best Sellers Rank: #22,234 in Books (See Top 100 in Books) #29 in Books > Medical Books > Medicine > Medical Ethics #52 in Books > Business & Money > Business Culture > Ethics #95 in Books > Medical Books > Psychology > Counseling

Customer Reviews

"The textbook provides counselor trainees with a no-nonsense analysis of the relevant ethical issues they will face in their clinical work. It is written in clear and concise language and provides its readers with wonderful opportunities for self-exploration and professional development. The authors have done a great job of providing supportive research and of integrating this research into relevant practice issues. The book utilizes a strengths-based approach to addressing ethical and legal issues faced by professional counselors and highlights the importance of self-awareness, discernment, and respect for diversity when addressing these issues in the workplace." - Shawn Spurgeon, The University of Tennessee at Knoxville "[This book is] an effective exploration of the complexity of ethical codes and standards for counselors, with effective experiential activities, including inventories for students, related activities, and CD case profiles." - Lona Whitmarsh, Fairleigh Dickinson University

Gerald Corey is Professor Emeritus of Human Services and Counseling at California State University at Fullerton. He received his doctorate in counseling from the University of Southern California. He is a Diplomate in Counseling Psychology, American Board of Professional Psychology; a licensed psychologist; and a National Certified Counselor. He is a Fellow of the American Psychological Association (Division 17, Counseling Psychology; and Division 49, Group Psychotherapy); a Fellow of the American Counseling Association; and a Fellow of the Association for Specialists in Group Work. Both Jerry and Marianne Corey received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the American Mental Health Counselors Association in 2011, and both also received the Eminent Career Award from ASGW in 2001. Dr. Corey was given the Outstanding Professor of the Year Award from California State University at Fullerton in 1991. He regularly teaches both undergraduate and graduate courses in group counseling and ethics in counseling. He is the author or coauthor of 15 textbooks in counseling currently in print, along with more than 60 journal articles and book chapters. In the past 40 years Jerry and Marianne Corey have conducted group counseling training workshops for mental health professionals at many universities in the United States as well as in Canada, Mexico, China, Hong Kong, Korea, Germany, Belgium, Scotland, England, and Ireland. Marianne Schneider Corey, a licensed marriage and family therapist in California, is a National Certified Counselor and a fellow of the Association for Specialists in Group Work. She has been actively involved in providing training and supervision workshops in group process for human-services students and professionals. She also facilitates self-exploration groups for graduate students and continues to conduct training workshops in group counseling with her husband, Dr. Gerald Corey, in various countries. In 2001, the two received the Eminent Career Award for distinguished and major contributions to the field of group work by the Association for Specialists in Group Work. Cindy Corey is a California-licensed psychologist in private practice in San Diego and on the faculty at San Diego State University Community-Based Block Program. She received her doctorate in psychology from the California School of Professional Psychology, Los Angeles. Patrick Callanan is a licensed marriage and family therapist in private practice in Santa Ana, California, and a National Certified Counselor. In his private practice he works with individuals, couples, and families. Patrick is on the part-time faculty of the Human Services Program at California State University at Fullerton, where he regularly teaches the internship course. He also offers his time each year to the university to assist in training and supervising group leaders, and co-teaches an undergraduate course in ethical and professional issues.

As a Counselor Educator and Counseling Psychologist, I feel that "Issues and Ethics In the Helping Professions" is one of the most nicely organized and well-written texts on counseling ethics ever written. I cannot think of another text I would choose over it to teach ethics to developing counselors. This text serves as an excellent source for the overview of ethical issues in counseling and related fields, as well as a guide to further reading. Corey, Corey, and Callanan expect readers to become involved in learning to deal with ethical and professional issues most directly influenced by the actual practice of counseling. The authors produce numerous useful examples for thought and discussion as well as well designed activities for the classroom setting. Even an instructor selects another text for her or his ethics course, the student should definitely consider purchasing this text as an ethics resource. This edition has also put more emphasis on the learning needs of School Counselors than past editions, although I hope to see it develop in this arena in the 6th edition.

NOT HAPPY! Second problem with the same publisher. Guess I didn't learn the first time. Won't buy another kindle version of a required text for school from this publisher!The kindle version contains 19 entries of "Text or Image not available due to copyright restrictions". However, all but one of these entries is publicly available on the internet! The other I believe is an error by the publisher (pp. 18-19 of text version)In order:National Association of Social Workers (NASW) website-purpose section (first 2 entries)Publisher Error-Commentary on example about client "Kevin"National Association of Social Workers (NASW) website-principles section-4.05.b-1.05.bCommission on Rehabilitation Counselor Certification (CRCC)- Code of Ethics Document-A.2. RESPECTING DIVERSITYNational Association of Social Workers (NASW) website-1.03.a-3.04-1.07.c-1.06.c-1.13.b-1.09.d-1.09.c-4.01.b-2.06.aCACREPSomething from the standards documentNational Association of Social Workers (NASW) website-3.03-3.08-3.01.c-6.04

Lots of figures and tables are missing from this Kindle version. Instead, it has place markers saying there are copyright issues. I NEVER WOULD HAVE BOUGHT THE KINDLE VERSION IF I HAD KNOW THAT!

The publisher is commenting on everyone's negative reviews saying that the issues are resolved. They are LYING. I just bought this book a couple weeks ago and it still has the 'content not available' messages all over the place. DO NOT BUY THE KINDLE VERSION. There is a lot of crucial information missing from the text. Please save yourself grief and buy the actual book.

This textbook was well written. While it gives a thorough review of the what I consider a lot of gray area in ethics, it also provides case studies for students to read. The case studies helped students in my class the most by providing examples of how a counselor may be conflicted in a given scenario. It was easy to read and had a lot of useful information.

As a graduate student, I find this book very helpful to understand my responsibilities. This book is well organized. The authors present the material in a way that shows the complexity of the issues and ethics. They give helpful steps that can be taken in the process of caring for one's client and also protecting the therapist. The authors bring in several resources to consider different perspectives. They bring in court cases and how the cases affect the ethical issues. They also supply different ways that counselors may have handled cases and give their opinions about how well these solutions reflected ethical decisions.

Awesome book! Purchased it a couple of semesters again and am still going back to it as a reference for current classes. A must keep for all future classes. Seamless transaction & speedy delivery. A+++ Seller!

A required text for grad school, with plenty of resourceful information.

Download to continue reading...

Issues and Ethics in the Helping Professions, Updated with 2014 ACA Codes (Book Only) Issues and Ethics in the Helping Professions (Book Only) Issues and Ethics in the Helping Professions with 2014 ACA Codes (with CourseMate, 1 term (6 months) Printed Access Card) Issues and Ethics in the Helping Professions (Available Titles CengageNOW) Ethics Across the Professions: A Reader for Professional Ethics Innovative Teaching Strategies In Nursing And Related Health Professions (Bradshaw, Innovative Teaching Strategies in Nursing and Related Health Professions) Stedman's Medical Dictionary for the Health Professions and Nursing, Illustrated (Stedman's Medical Dictionary for the Health Professions & Nursing) Pathology for the Health Professions, 4e (Pathology for Health Related Professions) Human Rights and Social Justice: Social Action and Service for the Helping and Health Professions Physical Change and Aging, Sixth Edition: A Guide for the Helping Professions Physical Change and Aging: A Guide for the Helping Professions, Fifth Edition Ethics in Psychology and the Mental Health Professions: Standards and Cases Only in Vienna: A Guide to Unique Locations, Hidden Corners and Unusual Objects ("Only in" Guides) (Only in Guides) Law & Ethics for Health Professions (P.S. Health Occupations) Medical Law, Ethics, & Bioethics for the Health Professions Ethics for the Professions Law & Ethics for the Health Professions Law, Ethics, & Bioethics for the Health Professions Legal and Ethical Issues for Health Professions, 3e Helping a Friend in an Abusive Relationship (How Can I Help? Friends Helping Friends)

Contact Us

DMCA

Privacy

FAQ & Help