Customer Reviews

The Methodist Hymn book series called "The Faith We Sing" is simply styled. This copy is lustre black, with "aged" looking pages. They also produce a green covered book, a spiral bound accompanist book [for the piano player] and sets of books..All available through at reasonable prices. Please remember this is a pew edition, with the melody line only, -treble clef, no bass line -bass clef and no guitar chords. Words only, with the melody line. This book is pleasing to the eye and should be viewed as non-denominational. Just for the pure fun of it all. Coca-Cola surely does not hold the right to "teach the world to sing". Perhaps all denominations should form a coalition to boycott childish statements from the corporate world. Here is a good place to start. The Faith We Sing.

wish it include an accompaniment (4 part score) for more of the songs refreshing music!

I purchased this as a surprise gift. My mother in law saw this at a church service and commented about playing the songs on piano. So I looked it up and we purchased it for her. Was in good shape, seemed to be good quality and she enjoyed playing the hymns contained inside.

The book smelled as if it had been through a fire. I had to return it.

This is a good companion to the United Methodist Hymnal, and also to many other hymnals!! There are more modern songs in it, and a lot of old standards, but on the whole, a more upbeat music. You can also purchase the soundtracks if your church doesn't have a musician. Perfect for a small church or even a larger one. (there is also a cd available with the lyrics in powerpoint for projection) excellent quality and prompt delivery

"The Faith We Sing" is in use by many churches today as an alternate hymn resource. In the United Methodist Church, our congregations use this hymnal that includes many of the old hymns of the church, as well as some newer additions. Great for multi-generational churches.
