Jump around a bit more than I liked. Didn't know it is more or less a compilation.

Really good Spidey story

Great. A must have.

I didn't like the artwork it really looked quite bad at times. Maybe that's the style but to me it looks crummy compared to what these artists are usually capable of. As a fan and reader from the 80's and 90's I also don't like the "reboot" which rewrites the history. It was many years old when i was reading it and i was fine. You pick up wherever and then you find out the backstory as you go. I did like the new Silk character and her abilities but would have liked a more creative introduction than what they did. But what do I know.

It was a lot of fun to read lot's of action imagination and great illustrations . I like a lot of bright colors in pictures and stuff but these showed a lot more detail with shading and lighting and stuff and still had a good amount of color , I don't want to give any spoilers for the story so I'll just say what I said before, good action and imagination.

The story fattens on typical Parker trouble. I especially like where the Maggia survivor wives adopt him as part of the Maggia family, in the full hearing of the cops. That's downright funny, because it bodes for all sorts of future false allegations against Spidey.

I haven't read up to Amazing Spider Man (this collection) but I really enjoyed it!! Spider man is hilarious, that's my favorite part is his funny quips! Also glad they included some of the other Â Â Â•Â Spiders I haven't met yet!!

Entertaining and great Spiderman book. It also has White Rabbit who always makes me laugh. Definitely worth reading for any Spidey fan.
