Accidentally Yours: Christian Contemporary Romance (Forever Yours Book 1)

Synopsis

Cinderella may have met her Prince Charming at the Ball, but Mia was no Cinderella, and Chad was no Prince Charming. Mia Fletcher is a mousy, nerdy, school teacher who is once again dateless for Valentine's Day. At the prompting from her co-worker, she agrees to ditch her cliché life, put on a party dress, and head for the Valentine Blind-Date Ball at the country club. What she didn't agree to when she signed on was meeting the very infuriating Chad Belmont. Willing to do anything to get out of a family obligation, Chad tells his friend he plans to marry the next woman he meets, and his friend takes him up on that dare until a simply party-game glitch gives them both more than they bargained for.

Customer Reviews

This book was just what I needed. It was funny, clean, and romantic. This book is for anyone who needs a break from life. Please give it a chance!

A very uniquely written romance. Interesting, fast moving & has a surprising twist that doesn't seem to actually fit with the way the couple argues at first. But fun still & worth the read.

For some, love comes at first sight. Chad met Mia 10 years ago when she was singing in a high class restaurant. Now, they meet again at a Valentines Day ball where a game of mock engagements and weddings take place. Chad realizes that he still loves her, but he's already engaged to another girl. What happens when Chad's best friend announces there is something more to the fake wedding than Chad or Mia knew.... Can love win in the twist of circumstances? I enjoyed reading this book. Sometimes I felt like a few of the characters were rather immature, but this might add more interest to the story??

I really enjoyed the characters. It was a hard book to put down. The plot moves quickly with good development of main characters. I liked how the couple had been waiting for the right one most of their lives and didn't settle for anything less. I loved the chemistry between the characters. Recommended to anyone wanting short feel-good book.

Shallow story line, stiff, completely predictable characters, and glaring editing mistakes made this book almost painful to read. Don't bother spending the time.

This story is truly delightful. They got off on the wrong foot so to speak until they were fake married at a Valentine dance. This was a real mix up. I loved this story.

ACCIDENTALLY YOURS by Samantha Bayarr Valentine day was evident for her classroom, while Mia wondered where it was for her this year. Sylvia a friend, had tickets for a ball at the country club, and wanted her to go. When was the last time she had on a gown, and out for an evening, if she went sounded like she was desperate. Could love be in the air that night, and meet her valentine. An enjoyable read for all ages to read and enjoy.

What happens when a pretend marriage ends up real? A quick read, and cleverly written story! I highly recommend it!
